Notes

Greetings

By Logan Summers

Some 21 times in Romans 16, Paul uses the word “greet” in sending kind regards to many brethren that he knows in Rome. Consider some of the people he greets:

- Those who risked their lives for Paul – Prisca & Aquila (Rom. 16:3).
- Various workers in the Lord – Mary (Rom. 16:6), Urbanus (Rom. 16:9), Tryphanaena and Tryphosa, and Persis (Rom. 16:12).
- Those who suffered with Paul – Andronicus, Junia (Rom. 16:7).
- Those who are well loved, but mostly unknown to us – Urbanus, Stachys (Rom. 16:9), Apelles, the family of Aristobulus (Rom. 16:10), Herodion, those who belong to the family of Narcissus (Rom. 16:11), Rufus and his mother (Rom. 16:13), Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and many others (Rom. 16:14), Philologus, Julia, Nereus, Nereus’s sister, Olympus, and even more (Rom. 16:15).
- Others besides Paul also sent greetings to these brethren – Timothy (Rom. 16:21), Tertius (Rom. 16:22), Gaius, Erastus, and Quartus (Rom. 16:23).

What a way to end this great letter to the Romans! This wasn’t merely an academic paper on the Righteousness and Justification of God, nor was it merely a sermon to faceless individuals. When Paul, through the Holy Spirit, penned these words, he had these brethren on his mind and in his heart. So too, did our Lord. Paul valued them, and his greetings to them stand as a testament to God’s value of these Christians who we may only know more about on the other side of eternity. Until then, don’t forget to greet those brethren you love, for the churches of Christ greet you (Rom. 16:16).

God loves you,
Shawn

Are you behind on your daily Bible reading? If so, don’t worry, just keep reading!

Next Sunday is Easter, and there will be a group of 10 families (38 individuals) at the Lads2Leaders Convention in Forth Worth, TX. Lads2Leaders is a Christian Leadership program that is dedicated to growing our young people into faithful Christian men, women, husbands, mothers, and leaders in the Lord’s Church. Please keep this group in your prayers.

Please keep his wife, Daesha and the family in your prayers.

Thank you

We are deeply appreciative of the love and support you demonstrated during Jeanette's hospitalizations in late 2023 and Bill's in the past several weeks. Your prayers, cards, calls, and texts not only encouraged us but also worked hand in hand with the exceptional medical care we received. We were further blessed with meals, rides, and other acts of kindness that meant so much to us. Please continue to pray for us as Bill awaits a date for his surgery.

With much love, Bill & Jeanette Malone
